Rest in peace. You were our family surprise. In 2001 you found us. My mother's little brother she didn't know she had. You were put up for adoption, and it was our blessing that you found us. You were such a nice guy. You look so much like your dad, Grandpa Ray.

Fun and funny, lover of life, wonderful Partner and Husband, inspirational Father, the kindest of souls, an innocent rascal, a joyous provocateur, valiant champion of the power of rock & roll, a friend whom I'd always wished were my uncle – that's Mike to me after 40 years. Break on through to the other side, brother, and let 'em know you're there! You'll be missed. Peace & Love

I wish we had found each other far sooner my brother. But the important thing is that we did find each other. I cherish the time we did have together. The fun and laughs. Seeing how alike we were in so many ways was truly amazing. Your daily emails, texts and our phone calls will be so dearly missed. I love you big brother and know you are watching down from paradise with love and happiness. You have brought this earth much happiness in the time you were here. You may be gone big brother, but! you will never be forgotten. Thank you for being part of my life. Your brother: Gary
