Para la familia Verver:En todos los años que yo y mi familia conocimos a JoAnn, ella siempre fue un ejemplo de amabilidad. Vivimos y pasamos unos tiempos muy gratos en la comunidad de fe (Iglesia Metodista Hines Blvd. e Iglesia Metodista Unida Casa Emanu-El) y siempre mantendré esos recuerdos. Que Dios les conceda a cada uno de ustedes fortaleza para los días venideros y la paz que sobrepasa todo entendimiento. De quien los aprecia. . . Theresa Santillán

My memory of your Mother, how she always welcomed us during our visits. Her gracefulness, inner beauty and such a beautiful smile. She exemplified courage, strength, endurance, humility, and such Faith. Her love for my cousin Paul shined. She has left some strong footprints to follow. Our Prayers to you. Love Magdalena and Aunt Asusena.

A beautiful and gracious Aunt who held herself with such elegance and grace! Always asking about how the Cruz-Aedo's were by name and just a lovely person. She will be dearly missed and I hope that Uncle Paul, Martie, Albert, Tina Marie, Robert and Teresa all find comfort and peace in God's grace. Love & Hugs, Rick Cruz-Aedo

For many years, the Ververs lived next door to our parents and were wonderful neighbors and friends. My brothers enjoyed growing up with the Verver children and even though I was no longer at home and didn't know them quite as well, mother and dad always spoke highly of JoAnn and Paul and were grateful for their friendship. Deepest sympathy and gratitude from the Ralph and Maureen Johnson family.
