Paul Andrew Howard

AUG 31, 1958 - JUL 10, 2019

Paul Andrew Howard was born August 31, 1958 in Dallas, Texas, and died of sudden cardiac arrest on July 10, 2019. He was a loving son, brother, husband, father, and uncle. During and following his attendance at Nacogdoches High School and Stephen F. Austin University, Paul played bass guitar and sang in several rock bands, including the popular Texas-based group Lightning. While working for the Trammell Crow Company in the development of the Dallas Arts District, Paul met his wife of 30 years when he hired her harp ensemble for a noon-fest concert series. Paul worked in the film and television industry for 40 years, bringing sound and lighting to countless projects throughout the world. He was exceptionally creative, talented, and skilled, renovating multiple homes and rebuilding many automobiles, whistling all the while. Paul was an avid fan of the Cowboys, Rangers, and Carroll Dragons. He loved and brought encouragement to his children daily, and was a precious friend to many. Paul is survived by his mother Janelle, brother David, wife Marsanne, daughter Elise, son Landon, and loving aunts, cousins, nephews, and nieces. He is preceded in death by his father Eugene, and his brother Jerry. Known for his clever wit and happy spirit, Paul truly brings joy to heaven. Services will take place at Restland Funeral Home in Dallas, Texas. Paul will be in repose in the State Room at Noon on Monday, July 15 through Tuesday, July 16. Visitation will be in the Memorial Chapel on Tuesday evening at 5:00, followed by a Memorial Service at 6:30. Light refreshments will be served.

Paul Howard was one of the nicest guys I've ever known. From my days with him at Nacogdoches High School to the last time we got to visit (not too long ago) he was always friendly, always smiling, always positive, and always fun to be around. A truly good man who'll be missed by many.

Paul was a unique man. He had strong knowledge of all aspects of video production. And beyond that he was a pleasure to be around. Can't remember a time the job upset him. He loved challenges because he would always find a solution. A unique man. I regret not being able to make it to the service to celebrate Paul's outstanding life. But, I did make it to the visitation last night and met Elise. She is a very sweet young lady. For us who worked with Paul knows the legacy he left behind in the production world. But his real legacy is his son and daughter raised by loving parents. God Bless the Howard family and all who knew him and miss him so much.

Paul will be missed in the Television community. A gentle soul, that always had a smile on his face, and a glimmer in his eye. A true professional in ever sense of the word. We will forever miss him. His crew will raise their boom poles and dim the lights, in honor of Paul. God rest your soul, TV brother.
