To my friend's family, Barbara was always a good, good lady! We only got to see each other during high school and at the class reunions thereafter. She was a beautiful lady who had that gorgeous smile and wonderful laugh. We talked a few times in the last years about getting older and doing the things we did all our lives. She was fiercely proud of her family, and those grandchildren! I have no witty words to say other than she was a class act, and I always admired her. I am so very sorry she's gone—I would have liked to talk with her one last time.

What a wonderful woman we laughed and enjoyed each other's company together off and on. I talked to her the last couple of months and this month was not over yet and she's gone. Even as I write this I tear up because I just can't believe it. Barbara, I will miss you and god knows love you. I am so glad we got to laugh over the phone last month about who gets the car and I will drive you back to Dallas. Your gone to soon! Friend for life! George

This picture is how I remember her — always smiling that wonderful, contagious smile and bringing light and friendship to all — even lowly freshmen when she was a junior in Dewey High School. She was the best and it was wonderful to reconnect via Facebook all these years later! Condolences to her dear family
