Melanie Victoria Cabrera-Angeles

JUN 13, 2018 - FEB 23, 2019

On 2/23/19 I felt the worst pain any mother could feel, I lost my beautiful angel Melanie. Everything was just so sudden. Just 3 days before her passing she was eating her full bottle and enjoying the sun. She has been nothing but a fighter since she was in my belly. Only bad news was delivered to us during my pregnancy. We were told that she wouldn't make it. Just 2 weeks before Melanie was born and after many many tests we got the sad news that she had a rare brain condition (lissencephaly). This would cause many issues and they weren't expecting her to even survive the pregnancy. As the fighter that she was and only weighing 3 pounds she left us amazed and in love. As soon as she turned 4 pounds she was able to leave the NICU to come home with no assistance! At some point we didn't even think her diagnostic was real. She looked and acted like a normal baby. We got to see her smile, enjoy baths, change her diapers, and do stretches at baby yoga. Your smile would make our days. Sadly in thanksgiving she got sick and that's when the ER visits became regular. Tests, doctors visits, and therapy became a routine. Her health was a roller coaster but she never gave up and showed us how much of a strong fighter she was. This last ER visit felt different, but I was sure that we would go back home like we always did. The day before she passed, a child on the room next to us had died. I remember saying that I couldn't imagine how it felt to come to the hospital and leave without your child. Little did I know that would be my case. At this moment we don't clearly know what went so wrong that caused the death of my beautiful baby. We are still in shock and I feel like this is just a bad dream and when I wake up I'll have her in my arms again. I can't thank enough everyone that gave her love and had the time to meet her. I just want her to be remembered as the happy baby we all knew. We all love you and you touched so many lives and hearts! Mommy can't wait to hold you again munchkin! Mommy and daddy love you princess. You will never be forgotten or replaced my sweet miracle. See you in heaven Visitation will be held Friday, March

So so sorry for your loss. Only a mother would know the feelings you feel during this most difficult time. May God soothe your thoughts and feelings with his peace. Although 'time and unexpected events' overtake us, including losing a baby, we have God's promise that we will see our love one again in the resurrection.
