I am sorry to learn of her passing. She was so sick when we were really young. As soon as she was back on the road to recovery, that beautiful wit of hers came roaring back too. It made for such a relaxed and welcoming home. Best wishes to all.

I feel very lucky to have had Gemo as a grandmother. She was creative and hilarious, and she was a lot fun to be around. Some of my favorite memories as a kid are when the whole family got together at Gemo's house on Woodcrest, usually for Christmas or Easter. I would hang out with my cousins, and we would do things like play games, chat, and hang out, and we would always hide when we got the feeling that someone was about to try to make us sing. One thing is for sure, Gemo had a kindness that showed me how much she loved all of us. We love her, too, and she will be missed.

You were always a gentile and sweet person who was very kind to me. I remember spending many enjoyable Easter's and holidays at your house when all the children were little. Those memories I will never forget. You will be missed, Rest In Peace Peggy.
