01/08/2019 – Joyce (McDole) Waters It is with regret, I will be unable to attend the service for my cousin Alma today, but my deepest, heartfelt condolences go out to all her family and friends. My thoughts and prayers will be with you as you lay this beautiful lady to rest. I have very fond childhood memories of Alma, as well as her recently late brother Earl. Two of the kindest and most entertaining people I have ever known. Always smiling and cheerful with a great sense of humor. May you all find comfort in the joyful memories of them both and in knowing they are together again in God's loving arms. They each will be missed by all those who ever knew them.
