Helen Beasley Crochet

NOV 1, 1924 - NOV 27, 2018

Helen Wuanita Beasley Crochet, daughter of Blanche Hamilton Beasley and John Floore Beasley, born November 1, 1924, in Cleburne, Texas, passed away November 27, 2018, in Dallas, Texas. She is preceded in death by her husband Joseph Roy Crochet, son Joseph Roy Crochet, Jr., parents, and three sisters: Julia Kramer, Betty Etier, and Blanche Cole. She is survived by her two daughters Carol Ann Crochet Phillips, and Suzan Lynn Crochet (Elaine Mae Johnson), grandson Samuel Craig Phillips (Kristie Lynn Lagenour Phillips), 2 great granddaughters Adia Lynn Phillips and Melody Rose Phillips, her sisters Mary Amenda of Ozark, Alabama, and Barbara Hooker of Hillsboro, Tx. Helen married Joseph Roy Crochet, February 19, 1950, at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Dallas, Texas. They had 3 children Joseph Roy Crochet Jr.; Carol Ann Crochet Phillips; and Suzan Lynn Crochet. Helen and Roy lived in Houston, Texas; Beaumont, Texas; and New Orleans, Louisiana, before moving overseas for 27 years. Together they raised their family in Libya, Iran, Egypt, Trinidad; Seychelles Islands, Tunisia, and Morocco. In 1984 they returned to the United States and settled in Dallas, Texas. Helen enjoyed entertaining and became somewhat famous in the countries she lived in for her Christmas Parties. Everything she did was grand, organized and well attended. She truly was a visionary. She loved ballroom and square dancing. She was a competitive bridge and duplicate bridge player. She was very talented, creative, and had a lot of ingenuity. She was an excellent seamstress and frequently made her own patterns. She also enjoyed crafting and thoroughly loved preparing for and hosting craft shows. Helen looked forward to going to Maudi Gras just to collect the free trinkets and beads to make into masterful Christmas decorations. Everything Helen did she made special. She and her sister, Betty, participated in the All Saints Hearts and Hands Bizarre for many years. Helen was a member of All Saints Catholic Church. Over the years she was a member of the Mother Cabrini Circle, the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, the

Gayle Sullivan Horton posted:

Helen was a good friend to my mom, Frances Sullivan (deceased). I remember Helen and Roy with such fond memories at my parents home and at church functions. I know they are in heaven, playing bridge and being joyful. So sorry for your loss, hoping the wonderful memories give the family comfort.
