The thing I remember most about James is his laugh and how it was always so genuine. Whether it was while joking around at work, at lunch or in ventrillo while raiding in WoW, I can still hear it. I miss my friend and don't understand how it has already been a year. I consider myself lucky for having known him and cherish the time I got to spend with him.

As I look at James Photograph i see some reflections of my brother. It is my hope and prayer that James and his Dad are together in Paradise . He has gone way too soon and we do not understand. Ashley i cannot understand or feel your sorrow at the loss of James, but I pray that the Lord will embrace you and hold you close to him in the days to come. For his Mother and siblings may the Love you had for James and for one another sustain you in your sorrow. James was a loving Grandson to my Mother and she loved the snapshots and telephone calls. He took just a few minutes to talk to her and tell her about his babies he brought her so much happiness. Rest my sweet man. It is my faith and hope that i will see all of you in heaven..... As I look at the photograph of James I see a reflection of my brother Leonard. His passing is way too soon and hard to understand. It is my hope and prayer that you and your Dad are together in Paradise. Ashly, I cannot begin to imagine your sorrow, may the Lord stand by you in your grief and the days ahead. and to all of you My prayer is that the Love you have for James and each other sustain you. He was a gift that will be missed by all of his family and friends. My days have also been dark and sad for the loss of him, my brothers son and I will always be grateful for his thoughtfulness to his Grandmother he called, sent her pictures of his family and new babies. He made her very happy. Thank you for your Love sweet Man. Love Aunt Christine

Our deepest condolences to James's family. I wish we had gotten to meet James in person, but feel like we know him through our son Hunter Whitener-Smith. James was a remarkably great friend to Hunter. We have heard many stories of his humor, kindness, generosity, and friendship as well as his brilliant mind and strength. We are so glad our son had such an amazing friend. He will be greatly missed.

I only had the pleasure of knowing James online as Billbrasky in WoW. He accepted me into his guild and in the time I knew him while raiding, he was positive and funny, always telling jokes and made everyone feel welcome. Rest in Peace Bill, you will forever be missed by your family and the countless people you brought together by giving them an online place to call home. With deepest sympathy, Djinnx/Tartarus

James was a friend and a leader to me and many others for many years. His passionate dedication to what he loved, his friends, and to indeed everything that he put his mind to was a profound personal inspiration. While we never met face to face the years of gaming together and overcoming some of the most difficult challenges available to us was a testament to his leadership. A true friend, he will be missed more than I could possibly ever articulate. Thank you for all the memories.

I had the pleasure to know Mr. Brasky for a good few years as he was our leader. I remember the time when he first welcomed me into the guild. He was polite and friendly and full of wisdom when I didn't know any better. A man full of life and jokes. Never was there a dull moment when he was playing with all of us and I am so happy to have known him the way I did. I know how much he loved his family as well and I wish them strength during this time. I want you to remember that he effected all of our lives in great ways even though we are so far away from each other (Canada). He brought us so much joy, something that will stick with me forever. May you lead others up there buddy as you lead us. I missed you when you left, and now even more that you are gone. Be at peace.

James (Bill Brasky) ran our guild or the Billtatorship as he used to say like a family. We found a home there after feeling disconnected for a year. We found a great place to play and James always had a funny quip or story to lighten the mood and get us all focused on working together. We really missed him throughout his battle and wished we could've done more. Our hearts goes out to his family and we are truly sorry for your loss.
