I knew Bill at Richland Baptist Church between 1991 and 2001, until my family and I moved to Collin County. I didn't see Bill for about 12 years, but when I ran into him, he remembered me, gave me that positive smile and we visited for a while at his workplace. A prince of a fellow and a godly man. I send my heartfelt condolences to the family on this day, at the same time knowing Bill is in the presence of the Lord. Rest in peace, friend and brother. -Charlie Haddox
