I remember listening to Mr Lewis play his guitar and sing. I always enjoyed it. Anytime I went to visit at church, he always gave me a hug and had a big smile on his face. I look forward to seeing that smile again in heaven when Jesus returns to take his children home. The family is in my prayers throughout this sad time.

This world has lost one of the very best! The times we had together on Sabbath afternoon for singing and of course Lewis on his guitar and myself at the piano. What fun we all had singing and enjoying good Christian fellowship together. I will never forget those times and the memories we made when a bunch of us got together for singing. Jesus is coming very soon and dear family of Lewis, we will all see Lewis again! I met Lewis some 40 years ago and he always had a word of encouragement and wanted everyone he met, to know Jesus as their personal Savior. Throughout the years of knowing Lewis, he was always gentle and kind to everyone. The family will remain in my prayers. We will all miss Lewis, but for now, rest in peace my friend.

Lewis was a great brother in Christ to have. What I enjoyed the most about his friendship, was that he was truly interested in listening to you and what you had to say. He was the greatest listener I believe I have ever known. He gave Godly advice after hearing completely what one had to say. He had a great passion for music, and he and I spent many times playing guitars when we could get together, mostly on Sabbath afternoons. We would work together on cars, engines, and even lawn mower from time to time, and these were the times that I learned the most from him. Rest in The Lord brother, Jesus is now very soon for you. My sincere condolences to the family, my prayers are with you all.
