Bob Honeycutt was a great man who always provided for his family, We was a very succesfull business man who had great leadership qualities . As a child it was so much fun spending X Mas at my grandmother and his home in Dallas Texas. They made sure we got exactly what we wanted for X mas and the food in that home would make any Italian family proud. He rubbed elbows with politicians , and famous sports athletes yet was very humble around his family. I will miss his sense of humor and intelligent wit. He can rest in peace now in the sky box provided for him up in heaven.

Thinking of the Hineycutt family during this difficult time. May the words found in Isaiah 25:8 bring comfort and peace. For God promises to swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. Please know you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
