Augustus was an extremely humble and kind man. He is one of the major influences in my life that got me back into college for a degree in accounting. I barely found out about his passing today, which shames me considering I called him a friend. Life gets so busy and goes by so fast. This man always treated my family with respect and kindness and that was why my mother always brought her business to him every time. After my mothers passing on 12/31/2015, he did me an extreme kindness that I will never forget. He was humorous and full of class. I will miss this man tremendously and I hope and pray that his family and loved ones adjust to life on this earth without this man's physical presence.

A true friend of life, I just found out today that my friend has moved on to the next faze of his life. Oh how I will miss our once a year chats and the many time running into each other at the Chines buffet. We may not have talked each and everyday, but he could always count on me and I him in any time of need. Love to you Augustus and your family. Victor

Rest in peace dear soldier of the Lord. I have known Augustus since my twenties when he had an office in Oak Cliff. He has done my taxes since my twenties and he was such a nice person indeed he had an infectious laugh. He was always full of wisdom I referred lots of people to him and he will surely be missed on this Earth. Praying for the family I found out about his death through google il knew it was very strange that his phone was disconnected and I couldn't reach him so I began with Google and discovered that he had passed. Well my condolences is still with the family because I know he will be truly missed May God bless you all amen

I have only known Mr Richardson for only about 4 years, but I can say without mincing words that he was a simple and respectable man. We attended bible class together and song praises to the Lord each Wednesday. I can say without hesitation that he was a man of God. May his soul rest in peace perfect peace.

My condolence to the Richardson family. We 're sure going to miss Augustus. Throughout the years, in all my dealings with him whether in business or on a personal level, he was always fair, kind, honest and never too busy to lend a hand to help others when called upon. He was a man of impeccable integrity. We 're grateful for his friendship and the world is a better place because of him May his soul rest in peace. Andrew Ajayi

Ah Kofi you fought the deadly illness with all your might but God knows better than we do. We are stunned and very disappointed and sad at your passing but we know you are resting peacefully in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ. Kofi I spoke to you on 3 occasions and you sounded very optimistic so did I. I am heartbroken. There is a void in the Richardson dynasty in NA we can never fill. We can only console ourselves with the hope that you are resting in the arms of God. Kofi rest in peace. We will forever remember you in our prayers. May God grant you eternal peace and rest. Amen !

I learned with sadness and great sorrow the death of my dear cousin and confidant Allotey Richardson early Friday, May 20th. My family and myself are devastated, speechless and "numb". There are no other words to describe my present predicament. What a loss to the Richardson dynasty present in North America. How do we fill such a void? Only God knows the answer. All along I thought Kofi will make it. It is a 'shochker'. Kofi rest in the bosom of the Lord Jesus Christ . Jesus please accept Kofi Allotey in heaven. AMEN!

Sometimes it is hard to say what you know when someone close to you passes away. With Mr Richardson "Uncle Fiifi" as we all know, the song has ended but the melody still lingers on. My wife and I have known this stalwart man for about twenty years and not just because he used to file our taxes for us but was also like family to us. He was very genuine and a man of integrity. He always had something positive and a word of wisdom to share. He was very Charismatic, loved the Lord and the word of God too. His death came as a shock to us and the whole Ghanaian community as a whole. Sometimes bad things happen to good people and we know that Uncle Fiifi has left a legacy of pain in our hearts but also know that He is in Heaven and in the bosom of the Lord God Almighty. Uncle Fiifi, my wife and I salute you for the good work done here on earth and the words of encouragement given to us. "Damerifa Due" and we will miss you dearly!!

We lost a great general in Dallas this week in Mr Richardson. The whole city is in mourning. He was a father, a brother and an uncle to many not just an accountant. To the family I say God is still there even if you cannot see him now. His strength is made perfect in our weakness. " Uncle Fiifi" as I called him gave me life tips every time I saw him. He was genuinely interested in what was going on in my life and not just another client to him. His big heart made him never say "no" to another client because it was never about money for him it was about helping another human desperately in need of accounting and tax services. You could on him for moral and social support when he was called upon. For twenty years he has always been loving, caring and a gentle spirit. I am the woman I am today because we crossed paths with each other. May your soul rest in peace. Great job done in Dallas you will be surely missed!
