Charles "Chuck" William Magill

AUG 13, 1920 - OCT 31, 2015

Charles "Chuck" William Magill passed from this life on October 31, 2015 at the age of 95. He died in Mesquite, Texas where he had lived with his wife of 73 years, Wanda Fae Magill, until her passing on September 24, 2015. Chuck was born on August 13, 1920 in Garber, Oklahoma to parents Harry Stuart and Lola May Magill. He attended Oklahoma A&M, now known as Oklahoma State University, before marrying his wife Wanda on April 25, 1942. In December of 1942 Chuck enlisted in the U.S. Navy, where he served in North Africa as a machinist during World War II. Chuck raised his family in Dallas, Texas where he worked as a machinist and plant manager for Guiberson, which later became Dresser Industries, until his retirement. There the couple raised their 4 children: Harold, Dennis, Gayla, and Rhonda. After retirement, Chuck and Wanda moved to Rowlett, Texas where they continued to be closely involved in the lives of their children and grandchildren. Chuck and Wanda were also active members of Meneely Memorial Presbyterian Church, later Eastminster Presbyterian Church, since 1954. Chuck gave the gift of his presence and hard work to his church community, family, and neighbors. He helped his family build and remodel countless homes, and when there were not any projects to be done, he was known to show up on Saturday mornings with donut holes to share. He spent the rest of his time working in his backyard machine shop, where he made specialty hardware for an architectural firm until he was well into his 80s. He is survived by his children Harold Magill, Dennis Magill, Gayla Magill and Rhonda Eggert; sisters Merline Maund and Jo Sattlemeier; 6 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. Memorial service held on Saturday, 11/7/2015 @ 1:00 at Eastminster Presbyterian Church, 6550 Samuell Blvd. Dallas, Texas 75228. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Restland Funeral Home and Memorial Park, 13005 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75243. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to: Eastminster Presbyterian Church Reference: Building Fund re: Chuck Magill Online

As Aunt Joyce said, the passing is bittersweet...Uncle Chuck and Aunt Pap are together again but you have all had too many losses too close together. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. With love, Judy

It is with great sadness that I have learned of the death of my cousin, Charles "Chuck" Magill. Chuck was a lot older than I, about the same age as my brother Bob Magill. I think he was off to WW11 before I was born. The loss of Charles and Wanda, his dear wife, shows me how much I always "assumed" that family would be around. To me, Chuck looks a lot like my dad, Chet Magill. And a lot like his father, my Uncle Harry. I will always remember his continuous smile and quiet presence. Long after I lost my dad and my mom, Charles and Wanda Magill reminded me of how much "family" means to me. God bless Cousin Charles and also Wanda. I will remember you. Mary Magill in Carlisle Pennsylvania. Part of Magill family.
