Let me tell everyone the funniest to this day story that I had with number one Papa in the world. I was doing some of his plumbing repairs down at Cedar Creek for him while he was in the VA hospital. He was giving me directions because done here there was no GPS at the time. I could not find one of his customers in Enchanted Oaks and every time I called him he said take a right at the "Swimming Pool". Well finally I asked someone and they said the "Swimming Pool" was the "Water Tower". So I found the house and did the repair and went back to the VA Hospital to discuss with him todays adventure. He said back in the day that's what they use to call "Water tower" a "Swimming Pool". How funny is that. We love you Papa say hi to everyone up there for me especially my Dad (Phillip Climer) Michael, Catherine, Corvin, and Ryan

My monkey papa. He got that name by calling me his monkey. I was always climbing up the back of his rocking chair on his afghan blanket as a child. He was the sweetest and funiest man. Even down to his last year, he was still so sweet and so funny. I hope you are eating your banana pudding smiling down on us. I love you monkey papa and will miss you!!! Love, Diana Jean "Monkey"
