Just heard from my brother, Mike Bergman, about Rachel's home-going. Although I never really knew Rachel personally, I remember how often Mom (Jean Bergman) would mention her over the years. What a comfort she was to Aunt Hilda. My sincerest condolences to all of you at the loss of this lovely lady. A cousin in Maryland – Carolyn Davidson

(Really sorry I cannot come to visitation, I could not find a sitter for my daughter and she's too young to come.) Rachel brought a lot of light to our clinic every time she came for a visit. Despite her significant health issues, she always had a joyful and loving spirit. She never complained or showed any discouragement – what a courageous and graceful soul. She's been talking about going home for a long while and has now embarked on that journey. I'll miss your visits but I'm glad your earthly trials are over. Much love to you and your family.
