Mom Laurie from day one 40 years ago you accepted me as your own child. You have never treated me any other way but as one of your own. I am so grateful and thankful that God sent you for us. I will always love you as my special mother. You will always be in my heart and I will see you in Heaven someday. I love you mom Laurie. Stephanie

Prayers ? one of my three favorite sisters. I was lucky enough to share some of her life, a cheeseburger here, a few Crappies on the line there and a few thousand hugs. She can't be replaced yet she would insist on our attention to our children, without grief and with the appropriate number of tears. We will abide accordingly. // Jl//SI Salem, OR
