All though I haven't seen Brad in 43 years he has an everlasting place in my heart. I remember him to be a very loving, kind and a sweet person. Love going with him every weekend to hear him play in the band, he and guys were one of the best bands in the KC area back in the day. They had even won Battle of the bands that a local radio station put on. The prize was a trip to compete nationally. He was very talented, he's no doubt making music in God's heavenly kingdom. I'm so glad we were able to reconnect in the last few years. Thank you Elizabeth for making that possible. God Bless you Liz, and your family, the Lord be with you in peace and comfort , Linda Montaleone Eastin
