Oh Judy. Such a bitter-sweet time. Bitter because I know I will not be seeing your pretty smile and hearing your hearty laughter. But the life's memories I have since we were teenagers will sing in my heart forever. I will miss our visits and telling tales of old. But it's sweet because I know your pain and suffering are gone and you are with your Lord in Heaven. I hope they have nice fields to run in and sunshine in Heaven, and maybe a puppy to sit in your lap and make you smile as you look down on the rest of us. I think my best friend, John, and I will be joining you before long. Save a seat for me. I loved you dearly. James M.
