I met Livia 20 years ago when I first moved to Texas and we became best friends. We had breakfast at least once a week over the years. She talked about Chicago and I talked about Ohio. She liked to eat at Denny's and then to go shopping at Target. Although she was shy and quiet, she was devilish with an eye for the "younger" men and a shout for the drivers on the road. Livia had a motherly love for her daughters and love and concern for all her family and friends. She never spoke badly of others – never criticized. My sympathy to Donna and Linda. Livia will be missed by all. But now she is at peace with her son, Richard and all others who passed before her. The tears are not for Livia, but for those she left behind. Rest in peace, dear friend. Barbara Cline

Livia was loved by all who knew her. She loved everyone unconditionally. A sweet soul who never met a stranger. We became friends when she worked at Jess Harben Elementary cafeteria. Always pleasant. The children loved her as she happily greeted them in the lunch line. She spoke often of the loves of her life....her two daughters, Donna and Linda. She cherished you both. Rest in Peace dear Livia.
