Helen J. Fletcher

FEB 14, 1915 - FEB 22, 2015

To some who love life so much, the Lord gives more of it. Helen Joan Graeber was born on Valentine's Day, 1915 in Webb City, Missouri and died Feb. 22, 2015 just eight days after celebrating her one-hundredth birthday. Helen married Patrick E. Fletcher, her high school sweetheart, on April 1, 1933. It was at Crozier Tech High School in Dallas where she, as a freshman and he as a senior, faked a fainting spell in front of him as a way to get him to notice her. Pat's career in the oil business resulted in moves to several Texas cities from East Texas to South Texas to Laredo to Odessa and finally to Midland where she resided from 1949 to 1999. She grew up in the Methodist church, but converted to Catholicism upon her marriage to Pat and was a long time member of Saint Ann's Catholic Church in Midland. After Pat's death in 1995 she moved to Dallas in 1999 to be close to her family and took up residence at Signature Pointe where she lived until her death. She unashamedly enjoyed the finer things that life had to offer, traveling extensively throughout the world. Her favorite trips were cruising the rivers of Europe. She was an avid card player and became very accomplished at bridge. Until a few days prior to her death, she would complete the newspaper crossword puzzle in less than fifteen minutes. She loved watching the Texas Rangers, Dallas Mavericks and Dallas Cowboys and would let you know when they didn't perform up to her standards. One of the most important things in her life besides family was the many close friends she had in Midland and at Signature Pointe. This picture of her was taken on her 97th birthday. Helen was preceded in death by her husband Pat and her oldest son Patrick Jonlee Fletcher. She is survived by her son Kenneth Michael Fletcher and wife Barbara of McKinney, daughter Judy Dale and husband Fred of Plano, grandchildren Bill Fletcher, Kenna Coats, Lisa Haney, Layne Fletcher, Karen Hicks, Melanie Prescott, Laura Dale, Michael Dale, Charles Honea, Brian Honea and Fatima Leach. In addition she has twenty-three great grandchildren. Many thanks to the care-giving staff at Signature Pointe and

I only knew Mimi for a short period but she radiates such warmth, elegance and grace at all times. She was a wonderful lady and it reflects in her family. Laura Dale has Mimi's sense of style and live for the finer things in life. We will miss her tremendously but I was glad to have her in my life even for a brief time.

Helen was a friend whom I knew at Signature Pointe on the Lake. She was a sweet and lovely person in every respect. She was my favorite Bridge partner. Helen was the essence of a "quintessential lady," who always dressed impeccably. I am proud to have been a friend of this special woman was totally alert at age 100.
