Dad is very proud of being able to bench press 300 pounds twice. He worked out his whole life. He had 18 inch arms. Not bad for a guy that started out as skinny as a rail. Love you Dad. Bruce

A great man and fabulous father! He was my Dad away from home so to speak as he would always be ready for whatever Sherry and I would want to go do. Thanks for sharing him with me when we were kids! May he rest in peace now.

Bob Schwanbeck and I have been friends for more than 45 years. We first met in 1971 when I tutored him in Spanish. He learned Spanish and would speak to most Hispanics whom he met. He memorized Spanish poetry and songs as well English poetry and songs. He made a lot of friends by quoting his poetry and singing his songs, and telling jokes. One of the things he really enjoyed was going to comedy clubs in Dallas and he would perform his favorite shtick of using an Australian accent while telling jokes. He was really tickled when an Australian congratulated him on his comedy routine, and asked what part of Australia he was from. Bob and I have talked by phone now for about 35 years now and I miss him already. He was a delightful friend. David B. Browning, db_browning@hotmail.com
