To the Gurnas Family: So sorry to your family that this person is gone from this world...so many on the other side that will be welcoming him... By request from Howard, I wish to leave this memory. Uncle Lombro and I were talking one day and from then on, in my heart, I referred to him as Hetty Pep... When he was young and with his brother Nick, they had set up a rope/wire out the bedroom window with a landing of pillows down below. The idea was to ride down the rope yelling, "hetty pep", and land saying "ton to ton". He said it did not really mean anything in Greek, it was just a made up fun thing that he and Nick did. Avdios Hetty Pep... and thank you for the good things in life. Niece, Connie Byers
