I just learned of Weldon's death. I am so sorry. He was my most favorite 3rd cousin. We were not just relatives, but classmates all the way through school. Carole, I know what it feels to lose your other half, so hang in there and try to remember all the good times. I will miss Weldon.

I am a new neighbor of Weldon and Carolea, so did not know him well. However, I enjoyed our short discussions when he was riding around in his mobile electric chair and a few visits with him while he was rehabing from his fall. It was very apparent he loved his wife and family very much and so very proud of them. Sorry I didn't know him years earlier. Billie and I express our deepest condolences and may God comfort Carolea and family during this time of sorrow.
