I just learned of Richard's passing via the newspaper. My sincere sympathy is extended to you. Richard, aka Uncle Richard as he was affectionately known, I was known to him as Aunt C, was a dedicated and devoted team-mate. We met when I transferred to the old Graphic Center. Richard was a true gentleman, kind, caring and compassionate. He would hold doors open, hold the elevator and acknowledge you in passing. Richard deeply loved and respected his late mother and dad. He also loved you Doug and Judy as a sister. He was very proud and lovingly followed the pursuits and accomplishments of Rachael, Tracey and their spouses and those of Mark. He also had a great interests in the all of our children. I will miss our our lunch and phone time. I will always remember his benevolent and generous persona. May Faith and prayer and Loving Memories sustain you in the days to come. Yours in Christ, Celastene Pruitt Retired AT&T Yellow Pages
