I miss you, Papa. You always spoke your mind with no filter. I miss that. Rest assured that this "sucker" is still something fierce! Say hi to Honey for me. Love, your grandson who you never thought would serve a mission but actually did.

Harold told us that Pres. Benson gave him the title "the Church Jester." He was always joking about something and making us laugh. He will surely be missed! Love you and your family Harold! Milt and Sandy Rogers

We've lived in Dallas 46 years and seems as though we've always known Dorothy & Harold Davis. They were a beautiful couple and always set high examples. We will miss seeing Harold sitting in the back of the chapel just inside the door waiting for Stake Conference to begin. He always had a smile, kind words, and a good hand shake. Enjoyed his memorial today and seeing a lot of old friends there to pay their respects. Lovingly, Cindy & Walter Jordan

You've had a place at our kitchen table, a place on the couch, a place in our lives and a place in our hearts. Now you've taken your place next to your beloved wife, Dorothy. You made it to your happy place. See ya later, Harold. Feel free to check in on us Smiths from time to time. ;-). Love, Camille Smith
