I was a neighbor of the Kirkpatrick's when I was a child. Was very fond of them and have lovely memories of visiting with them along with my parents. I remember once, they went on vacation, to Florida I think, and asked me to feed and care for their dog while they were gone. Mrs. Kirkpatrick brought back a little bottle of Orange Blossom perfume for me as a gift for taking care of the dog. I was so thrilled and I wore it every day until it was all gone. Remember William and David too, although they were a bit older, closer to my sister Barbara's age. Just happened to see this obituary today, as my work at McShan Florist includes verifying funeral info and when I saw Eunice Kirkpatrick, I had to look and see if it was our sweet neighbor from long ago. May God bless and comfort your family with sweet memories of her. You will be in my prayers. Rhoda (McKay) Sawan
