A Grandmother's Love © Brianna Golman She was so nice and so sweet. She had a big family and lots of friends She was a grandmother that meant so much to us. But I never imagined the picture saying goodbye Never thought the day would come That we would see her one last time She was always there when no one else was She never left our side That's what a loving grandmother does She was there with us through thick and thin But who ever knew Her time would end We would give up even a dollar, quarter, or dime We would give up my whole world Just so I can see you one more time

Tonya and Amari, At this time we find ourselves questioning God yet we know he never makes a mistake. I've been there and I can assure you the pain does get better. You will have days that seem as if you are reliving the loss and at that time may God wrap His arms around you and remind you of all the wonderful memories you have to reflect on. God is with you and Mother's love will remain in your heart forever. Much love, Willie Mae

My heart, thoughts, and prayers are with you guys during this time. I truly understand what you are going through. I assure you each day will get a little better, and you will still have your moments. Know that your mother lives inside of you, and when you are feeling low just talk to her in your own way and it will get you through the day. May God be with you all. Cathy Moore
