Tio, Just wanted to say that I love you, and will always remember all the wonderful holidays and summers we spent together. You always took time to talk to me, and were interested in everything that was going on with me. I will never forget the time you rescued Leo and I from drowning in the lake. You just jumped in and swam as hard as you could to save us. My hero! You will be missed, and are loved by many. Gloria

My sincere sympathy goes to the entire family. Godmother I am sorry for your lost and I think about you guys all the time. You both baptist me when I was little and we The POrras send our sincere condolences. He was a friendly and loving man and he always showed me love when I saw him. I am only sad that I did not spend time with the both of you but the times when we where together I will cherish. I will have the family in my prayers nd thoughts. With Lots of Love Always You God Daughter Irene Porras
