Rosalie was a marvelous person and was like a wise grandmother. She and I would talk on different topics and she was very thoughtful in her responses. I don't think I ever saw her get mad at anyone. And she loved it when I would play a joke on Mrs. Roy, my father or my brother. She taught me the finer points of cooking skills and nothing was impossible. It was always better when she made it from scratch. My brother and I will miss her terribly. I know our sorrow is not half what her family's is and we will say a prayer for you today.
