Mom, I just want you to know how proud I am of you. You lived and died with grace and dignity. You were always kind and giving. You never held back forgiveness. You loved me even when I may not have deserved it. You were a wonderful example of a mother. I can't thank you enough for all the sacrifices you made in your life for me. I can't thank you enough for being a kind and caring mother. Most of all I can't thank you enough for being a Christian mother. I am so happy that you are in heaven with your mother and with Jesus and have a new body that does not hurt and ache. Thank you for loving me and being an excellent example. I love you. Patricia

Mom, The Lord has decided that you have completed your assignment as his faithful servant. Mom part of your assignment was to show me what to do, how to respond appropriately, and how to deal with adversity. I feel you have accomplished these tasks, even though I may not perform them the way you taught me. Mom, your physical condition the past few years has been used to remind me that there is an appropriate and dignified way to handle so much pain and adversity. I am so relieved, that now for the first time in so many years, you have the ability to have so much joy and happiness, by the way tell Grandmamma I Love her and miss her so much. I know that you are now physically able to dance in the streets of Heaven. Mom, Trish has said so often these past days, "I know now that I do not have to worry about how Mom will be taken care of". I am relived that job now belongs to our Lord, and his blessings will be coming your way, so lookout. Mom, you will be missed but not forgotten, I will always remember the dignity and the tenacity you had to fight so hard and so long. The lessons learned from your life will not be erased from memory, but will be referred to time and time again when I need strength and wisdom. Thank you for loving me and providing these lessons of life. Love, Jerry

God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be. So He wrapped his arms around you and whispered, "Come to me". You didn't deserve what you went through so He gave you rest God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. And when I saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain, I could not wish you back to suffer that again. I love you Grandmother
