I have only just now learned of your passing! I want to thank you for all of the fun and the happy memories. As a child, a big treat for me was to get to go to Magicland in Downtown Dallas and purchase magic props and books. You were always such a delightful man, and as I grew into a professional entertainer, Magicland was a wonderful resource for me, and the employees became friends and colleagues. Those were really happy days! I will treasure your dry wit to the end of my days. Also, I am really sorry that I never purchased that darned "Jo-Ann Card Duck" that you and Mark Roberts pushed on me so much that it became a running joke...I will love you guys always! Mister J, you will always have a piece of my heart. Love, Valentina Burton

Dad: Thank you for everything. I hope that you knew, how much I appreciate all that you did for me, during your life. I will miss our trips to Braums, and Walmart. Also, our lunches at Luby's. Many of your principles will remain with me for the rest of my life. Good business practices, not living beyond my means, not being overweight, etc. Dad your left a good mark on the world with your life! God bless you, and may you rest in eternal peace! Love, Gene Jr.
