I was so shocked when i found out the news, and still pretty shaken up about the whole thing. I talked to you a few days before this tragedy and I just wish I would have said more or something different. But there are a million things I cannot change, Like my love for you. You have been my best friend for about 5 years now, You helped me grow up and taught me alot about life and who I am. I know your pain is over now, and that you are happy in heaven looking down on us all. Thank you for touching my life, my soul as deeply as you did. I cannot wait until i see your beautiful face in heaven, but until that day.. Rest In Peace Sweet Michael.

Reminiscing with our old friends today after years of not. You cross my mind! We were all great friends! Somedays you drove me up the wall by purposely aggravating me, but I know you did that because we were friends! I know you must be doing well, wish it could be here with us but I know you are in a better place! Thinking of you and missing you!

There has not been a second of my day, since the day I first laid my eyes on your beautiful face that I have not thought about you. To this very day, You are my FIRST thought when I wake up and LAST thought before I go to bed. I know our time here together was hectic.. and complicated and many wouldn't understand it.. But there is no doubt in my mind that you are, and will always be the Love of my life, the memories of US will stay with me for a lifetime.. Your birthday is getting close- which is a tough time of the year for me. But i will do what I do every year, bake your favorite cake and tell myself what a BLESSING it was to have my angel in my life for as long as I did. I thank God for you everyday, and ask that he watches over you until I get there. I Love you MichaelBear...

Dear Michael, It's taken me along time to do this and come to terms that you are no longer here. But you will always have a part of my heart. I met you when I was just 19 and we grew up together. I know are relationship wasn't always good but I loved you so much. I would have done anything for you but I knew that I couldn't save you. The day you died a part of me died too. I will never forget you and I know your always with me protecting and watching over me. I wouldn't change the past 8 years we spent together because it made me who I am. You taught me alot and patience being the most important thing. I always felt like part of your family. I love them just like my family. I wished that things could have been different but this is the choice you made not me. I love you forever and I hope your in peace. Love Always, Lisa

To Mikes parents, I am sorry for your loss, me and Mike were friends for over thirteen years. We were always there for each other and he was one of the best friends I every had and will every have. I wish I had stayed in closer touch with him when he moved back to Dallas and maybe things would have been different. He is in God's hands now. I was shocked when Lisa called and gave me the news, it's still settling in that I lost such a great friend of that many years. I hope his family is at peace to know that I knew him well enough to know that he loved all of his family very much. He was a great guy, friend, and like a second brother. I will miss him deeply and always. I will keep him and all his family in my prayers.

I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and praysers are with you at this time of sorrow. For Michael: May you always walk in sunshine and God's love around you flow, for the happiness you gave us, no one will ever know. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone, a part of us went with you the day God called you home. A million times we've needed you, a million times we cried, If love could only have saved you, you would never have died. The Lord be with you. May you rest in peace.
