I worked with Lora back in the early 80's at Old American Insurance Company. She was a great, great friend and wonderful person and she always made me laugh. I had been thinking about her quite a bit lately and was saddened to find out she had passed away due to cancer. I had not talked to her in several years but she has always been a true friend. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and all the others who knew and loved her. You're with God now Lora and you will meet my dad up there too. Love you.
