J.R you and Doris have always been the best of friends I am only Sorry that in the past few years we have not keep up with each other .With work and grandkids that was my fault. Both of you were always there from you being a teacher and leader of our Bakery to being a golf partner. We all had some great memories from Las Vagas to Louisiana. Patricia is always telling everyone the night that Doris and her drove to Louisiana to be in a slot tournament and it was raining so hard that she followerd a Eighteen wheeler into the weight station at the border because they could not see the road.. Thanks for all the memories and let stay in touch. You still mean the world to me.

J. R. I am so sorry. I will never forget one time we were all going to Los Vegas for the bakers convention.. We met at Dallas airport.. Seems Doris did not like flying. She said maybe we all should have a bloody mary before we get on that plane.
