I lost a great friend in Jack, but the memories of our years spent together at sears will always remain...memories of when we worked hard, succeeded greatly and made Sears a great company. I remember our many meetings in Chicago when we would plan the appliance programs for Sears, enjoy dinner and good conversation/ I remember the Super Bowl trip we won to New Orleans. I remember our times together in the Southwest Territory when Sears was a great company. Jack achieved much in his work, but most of all he was fun-loving and always great to be around. Jack's star will always shine for me. Ace Evangelisti
