I have been a life-long friend with Bryan. Over the years the Pettons have shared many vacations and family outings with me. Johnny and Francis are like my second parents and Bryan is a true brother to me. I grieve with the Petton family in Johnny's temporary absence and will rejoice with them in our permanent heavenly residence when we are gathered together with our Lord Jesus.

This man, John Petton, was more than my Boss... He was that prankster at the office, the one who made everybody laugh. He was my confidant when I needed it and a shoulder to cry on. The person who made you strive to always do your best. But more than any words I could ever say about him is that he was my friend, and I will miss him more than anyone could ever know

My job demands that I perform a number of cold calls per month. Business owners react in many different ways when I call on them. John immediately took my call and took time out of his schedule to meet with me more than once. Me, a total stranger to him. He did not have to do this, but that was the kind of person he was. I had hoped that we would have the time for him to show me the ropes on how to fish North Texas lakes. Unfortunately I'll never have the opportunity. I believe God puts people in front of you that will teach you a little about life. I think that's why John took my call. Not necessarily for us to do business together, but for me to hear him talk about how much he loved his family, cared for his parents and enjoyed his simple hobbies. I wish the Petton family peace during this difficult time and I wish his son Bryan continued success with Tomco.

I am so blessed to have been able to work for John for the past 23 years. There is no denying the great love he had for his family, friends, and employees. I will never forget his generous spirit, thoughtfulness, and the little "unexpected" ways he would show his appreciation for us. He will be greatly missed. Frances and Bryan... I love you and pray it comforts your heart to know that, as believers in Christ, you will be with him again one day. "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me has everlasting life."
