Billy, so sorry for your loss. I didn't know your mother except through my aunt who thought of your mother as one of the girls. You and yours are in my thoughts and prayers. Wayne

Billy, Betti, and family: We are so sorry for your loss and wish we could have been there with you during this time of sorrow. One Thanksgiving when Rich was hunting, she invited me and the boys to come to her home for a wonderful Holiday and I so appreciate her hospitality. Your mother was very kind and gracious-a beautiful woman. Much love to you all, Richard and Connie

Billy, Pam and all, Saturday's service was beautiful and honored your mother in a poignant and special way. I for one will miss her. It was always a joy to be in her presence, and although we didn't see one another often, I am sad to know that the opportunity to visit with her on this side of heaven is gone. I look forward to a joyful reunion in heaven when the day comes, and in the meantime, heaven just got a little bit brighter with her essence in the midst of the angels. She'll light the place up with her smile. Love, Susan
