Dorothy Sue and Robert, Uncle Truett is the last of six wonderful men who are irreplaceable. Their strength of character and dedication to their beliefs are unparalleled today. I loved all my uncles, but truly a piece of my heart is missing now that Uncle Truett has gone on to be with the Lord. My tears are for the family and myself, for I know for sure where he is and that he rejoices now with all those Dunns and other loved ones who have gone before. God bless you and hold you in the hallow of his hands during this difficult time. Love, Freida

I loved Mr. Dunn very much. He was truly a man of God. He loved his Lord with all his heart and you could tell that by his actions. I will always remember that he had 2 pockets full of peppermint candy every Sunday. Peppermint candy will never be the same. He would give candy and Mr. Fred Wray would have a quarter for a cold drink. May God bless you in the days to come.
