I was Albert's barber for a great number of years and have to admit he never had a bad word for anyone and truly was a friend to everyone who was lucky to make his acquaintance. He never missed an opportunity to share a tale or story expressing his true love of his wife or the pride in his children or grandchildren. Talk about a genuinely really nice guy. If there was ever one to meet it was Albert Byron Noles. I am truly blessed to know him because of the memories I will always carry forward. Bless him and bless you all. Condolences from Bruce, Brandi, and Kris – the Barber Shop Bruce Sauerzopf (Addison, TX)

We have a list of folks we know all written in a book and every now and then we go and take a look. Each name stands for someone, who crossed our path sometime, and in that meeting they have become the reason and the rhyme. Although you're not aware of any special link, just knowing you has shaped our lives, more than you could think. So when we send this greeting, that is addressed to you, it is because you are on that list of folks that we are indebted to. So whether we have known you for many days or few, in many ways you've played a part in shaping things we do. We are but a total of the many folks we've met and Albert you are one of those we never will forget. You've been a wonderful neighbor. Thank you for being our friend! The Pointers, Mike & Lou

Hey Big Brother, You were the best brother a sister could have in her life. You would take me places and we laughed a lot. If I had a problem you would listen and give me good advice. I have always looked up to you. I was always impressed in the way you and LaVerne worked together. My memories are many and I loved you so very much. Love you, Evelyn

Hey old man, Your reply was always hey "young whipper snapper". I know you will understand what I am about to attempt to say. You just had that ability. As a father myself, I know it comes from loving your family, that knowledge of knowing what is on their mind before they say it. You were Dad in all aspects. You understood the security of a family better or appreciated it more than most because you did not have that as a child. I cannot imagine what it would have been like to grow up never speaking to your father as you did. To have him pass you on the street but not speak would crush me. I know there are a lot of other details regarding this but I think you know what I am trying to say. You were not bitter, but instead made sure your family never had to experience this uncertainty. So many things I could say, I would be writing until next year. I am very grateful we lived our lives as father and son. We had a very special relationship and you and I both knew it. I have prayed many times over the years thanking God for you and for Mother, and to take care of you and to remember you in heaven. I KNOW God is doing that right now. I looked up in the sky on Saturday night, a moonless but clear night, filled with stars, quiet and still, peaceful. I had to smile, because I know you are up there, happier than you have ever been, experiencing the joy that only God can give. I know, because I know, because I know. You were the best Dad, you were my Dad.

Daddy, you were the best Daddy a girl could ever have! I learned so many things from you, from how to drive (even apologizing to the driver of the car I almost hit), how to jump the waves at Galveston, how to play one-on-one basketball, how to shuffle and deal a deck of cards and how to fit in with the neighborhood boys when I was the only girl. You were always there for me, making me feel safe and loved as "Daddy's little girl". When I was worried that I wouldn't have a Homecoming mum for a football game, you gave me one that had my name on one streamer and "from your favorite boyfriend" on the other. You were a very kind and gentle man who loved his family, gave freely of his time to his church and was a much loved employee at Delta Air Lines. I have always been so proud to call you my Daddy. I love you so much and I will miss calling you and hearing, "Abe's Mule Barn, Abe speaking".

Granddaddy- You were such a big part of my life. You gave me so many memories of you. Whether it was pushing me in the grocery cart and pretending we were the Road Runner while you were saying out loud, "Vroom, Beep Beep" and accidentally bumping into Grandmommy. You taught me how to play checkers, dominoes, how to catch a crawdad with a string and some bacon, and "How the Cow Eats Corn." =) You attended my pep rallies that I performed in my sophomore year in high school and attended every single football game (and playoff games) my whole 3 years in high school except one when Uncle Ken got married. I treasure all of those memories and even more. You hold a special part of my heart and always will. I know you will be watching over us from above. I love you Granddaddy!!
