Aunt Mildred was a true sweet heart. For such a tiny woman she always served up big hospitality. You were always welcome to visit her anytime at all & she'd having something for you to eat. I'll miss Aunt Mildred, but am glad she is now with her FIRST LOVE- Jesus and her husband, Uncle Harlan.

Aunt Mid was a phenomenal woman with the kindest heart and sweetest voice. She was beautiful, inside and out. Mid always shared a smile and a "How are you Honey?" with everyone. We will all miss her tender ways and loving heart but rest easy knowing that she now rests in the loving arms of our Lord and Saviour. We will miss you Aunt Mid.

Aunt Mid was the sweetest woman anyone could have ever met. She was so generous and gracious to all. Her family and friends will all miss her terribly. Since she moved into Bradfield she made so many new friends and they all loved her dearly. Aunt Mid will be missed and I loved her dearly. God bless her. Laura

Aunt Mildred was a precious and gracious lady. Every time we visited her, she would ask to hold our children in her lap. I remember her sweet smile and spirit. We are thankful she is with our Lord and Savior and her husband Harlan.
