John is my dear brother in Lord Jesus. His faith with Lord is my example to follow on. Every Word spoken by Lord is true. I wish I could be qualified to have a mansion prepared by Lord as my dear brother has.

It has been several years since we have seen Uncle Joe & Aunt Donnie, but I remember the last visit was at my parents. It was a good visit & I'm glad for that. Sadly miles have kept us apart, but we do have memories of getting together when we were little at Dad & Mom's & Harpers Ferry, W.Va. Our sympathy goes out to each family member at this time. Know that our prayers & thoughts are with you all.

Dear ones of the Beekmann family: We will always cherish our times in your home and times of fellowship together with you thru the years in Dallas. We are grateful to have had the privilege and glad that your faith in our Heavenly Father has seen you thru this experience. Please know that our thoughts are with you in the days ahead and we care. May Joe's good testimony bring you peace as you face those days. Love to all of you, Verby & Jody
