Mrs. Smith I can honestly say he did his job and did not leave any gang members heart untouched I want to thank you for saring your husband, with us that needed him and as a positive person in our life. My first encounter with Norman(Big Russia) Smith was one you see on T.V. where you see a person so scared they do walk a straight line in your pressence, thats what you did for me. You scared me straight. From our first run in at the circle seven corner store by Spruce. To you coming to my high school after an off campus altercation to get the scoop and to take my picture for the Gang Files. I never blammed him but thanked him for caring. I will see you when I get there and thanks to you mentoring me about gang violence I am not there.

We borrow words from a great President... For the family of Senior Corporal Smith, we cannot bear, as you do, the full impact of this tragedy. But we feel the loss, and we're thinking about you so very much. Your loved one was daring and brave, and he had that special grace, that special spirit that says, "Give me a challenge and I'll meet it with joy." He wished to serve, and he did. He served all of us.

I am so sorry for your loss. And I am sad that we have all lost such a great man and officer. I never met Norm Smith, but he sounds like a true hero. I am so troubled by the loss of this man that I am going to make sure that I support the police departments in the Dallas area in any way I can from this point forward. I have always thought of all of them as heroes, but I want to somehow go public with the need to support them and their families (as well as the fire dept.) because they risk their lives every day to protect us. For those of you who knew him, you were blessed. For his family, please accept my deepest sympathy and words of support. For those of you who were touched the same way I have been with his death, please make an extra effort, somehow, in your daily lives, from this point forward, to honor and protect our officers and firefighters as well. Do something for them and their families in the memory of Norm Smith as a tribute to him, his family and those who were fortunate enough to have him in their lives, although for too short a time. He will never be forgotten. Hopefully, time will make us stronger and more united in the effort to support these men and women who protect us each and every day. I won't forget Norm Smith, or what he did for us.
