The Bryant Family posted:

We will miss Mr. Adams so much. He always had a smile on his face and so much love for the school and for the children. Your entire family is in our prayers. We believe blessings come into our lives and that Mr. Adams was one of those blessings. Sincerely, Alison, Kevin, Davis & Preston

Richard Bramblett posted:

I grew up as a young boy in Forney, Texas, and John Bell Adams was a friend, sometimes known as "J.B." around town. He was a good friend, honorable and trustworthy, well liked and respected in his home town. After World War Two, he went to Texas Military College for a year then transferred to East Texas State in Commerce, TX. I heard he graduated with Honors. Richard Bramblett
