I will greatly miss my Uncle Coy. He supplied loving support for our family after our father passed away and I know my mother loved visiting him because she saw so much of her late husband in his face and in his smile. It is his laugh and smile that I will miss most of all. Once you heard the one or saw the other your day was instantly brightened. I'm sure he and dad, Aunt Vivian and Aunt Billy Jo are having a rousing game of 42 now.

Uncle Coy was one of God's true gifts to all of us and he will be so greatly missed. Coy was almost a second Dad to us when our Dad passed away over 17 years ago. He was always there with a big smile, a generous hug, and lots of love when you needed it most. He was a great teacher (heck, he even taught me how to play "42") and a wonderful man. I am so grateful he was in my life.
