I worked with Lisa at SMU. In fact, our cubicles were side-by-side. Sometimes I would peak over the divider to say hi-I was always greeted by her wonderfully warm smile. I'm sitting in my cubicle now and would give anything to peak over and see her again. She was a great friend from whom I learned so much. Her intelligence, courage, grace, humor and spirit are sorely missed here. I'm lucky to have known and worked with her.

I was very sad to hear about Lisa. I remember her from the SMU MBA program, as a person who was friendly and not afraid to ask questions about what she did not understand

My mother, Kimie Simmons, was Lisa's babysitter from infancy. Lisa became our "adopted" little sister and was even included in our family pictures during that time. She was a jewel and we have always been proud of her accomplishments and will remember her beautiful life. Our prayers and thoughts are with her family.
