With my sincere condolences to Christina's family and friends. Although, I did not know Christina very well, I was so sad to hear of this sudden loss. I would see her at the copy room often here at Cook Children's always smiling and so friendly. When I would share a tough day, she would react with a positive message that would always make me feel better. I have no doubt her soul is comforting to those in heaven now. I met Christina several years. She was loved as a family member of my brothers family. She attended, many events coming, to Corsicana with my, brothers family and we all loved her dearly. She was the most beautiful precious person that anyone would be, privileged to have, them in her life. Always smiling and always so kind. My prayers go out to her family. I know they will miss her dearly. Also my prayers go out to my brothers family who loved her as their own. We all loved, this precious angel and will miss her until we see her someday again in Heaven. Heaven certainly got a special angel. Love you, Christina.

When news came of Christina's passing, my first question was, "You mean OUR Christina?" I wouldn't be surprised if many others feel that Christina was "theirs". She made a profound impact on our family, from the eldest (Memaw) to the youngest of our big family. If she happened to not attend one of our family get-togethers, the question kept coming up - "where's Christina?". We have been made richer and oh so blessed to have had this remarkable Christina in our lives.
