Thank you Uncle Casper for your comments.... Mom, there is not a day that goes by that I do not think of you and your wonderful heart. Believe it or not Bruce passed a couple of years ago...He was too young to leave this earth, but he did...So many folks have gone since you left us and landed in Heaven. I hope you are feeling the love that you shared with us, there is not a pastry that I've eaten in these years that can compare to your baking. I miss you my friend.. my heart bleeds forever...your son Glenn

I spoke to Glenn yesterday. It was nice to hear his voice. We talked about many things, and of course, you. We both miss and love you. Talking about the fun we had way back and the trips we took back and forth to see each others.families.I miss the phone calls we had so often, and talking about Jesus and her church. I remember meeting the church ladies and the praises they had for Aggie. That was her other family she talked about occasionally.Every time I call Marie, I think about calling Aggie. That can't be done! Seems like Aggie is on my mind also, when I talk to my sister Marie even today. I know they were close.Still love you and miss you sister, especially when I think back of the early days in Garfield. You had always thought about me because I was your little brother, and we seldom had much growing up.Your big and tender heart was always there caring.

Thank you, Uncle Casper!This was very well shared.... My heart feels like it slows down and drops every time I see this site...You can feel the sadness come off the pages of comments... I know where she is, with a heart of love that this lady had, she is rejoicing in heaven with the angels.... I saw a beautiful cardinal in my yard on July 5th,That was the very last time I had taken her to my home and cooked a nice lunch.... I do believe the belief, that beautiful Cardinal visited me, and it was Mom telling me she is doing great!Glenn Dietel

As the youngest brother in the family, Agness always looked out for me. She and Howard took me places with them, because our parents never had a car and never went anywhere. We all had a special love for each other in our family.

Dear Mom, A second Christmas season without you. My sadness has barely receded. I'm reading a book- through a season of grief, has helped me at times. Your cookies and decorations can never be replaced. I wish you were here, someday we will meet again. Your brother, sister, miss you greatly also, as you knew they would. You were a wonderful soul, we all miss you so much, Merry Christmas Mom, Love Glenn

Dear Mom, Today, one year has passed that you found your final home. Your kindness, love, lives forever on...I continue to miss you greatly...I find comfort in your words.. "You have nothing to be sad about when I'm gone, You've done everything you possibly could for me"...But, sadness continues to overwhelm me... I hope Heaven is as wonderful as you believed it would be...Miss you!Glenn

Thank you to all for sharing your thoughts for my beautiful Mom. My sadness and pain can't be put into words.... I don't understand death, why in the world this wonderful, loving, caring person would be taken so soon to heaven I'll never understand...Today is 30 days since that devastating moment...God bless ALL our valuable seniors...

I am sending my prayers and thoughts to Glenn and the family of Agnes Dietel. She would always send her beautiful and delicious Christmas cookies via Glenn to his office for his co-workers to enjoy...and we certainly did. May God's love provide the family with peace and comfort today and always.
