I love and miss you so much pawpaw! You were the best grandfather to me.. I miss you dearly and I have yet to grieve over the loss of you as I've been facing so much alone.. without you and memaw here it's no where like our family use to be and it hurts! I will always honor what u and memaw not only instilled in me, but reminded me of when it came to who I was and going to be.. I also and very grateful for the love you guys gave me and shown me despite what life gave yall. It's because of you guys I'm able to be half the woman and mother I am today. I'll forever yearn and hurt for you and memaw for the rest of my dads! ;(love you so much

Just learned of the passing of one of the dearest sweetest person I have ever met. As a fellow member of Lakepointe Church he would always greet me with a smile and as we parted would tell me to "have a blessed day". My sincerest sympathies to his beloved family. Bobbie Scott

I always felt such a special closeness to my Uncle Mauricio. Its because from the beginning he has always been there for me. Encouraging me, listening to my troubles, and cheering me along the way. He was thoughtful and always going above and beyond to helping others and that has never changed. I had a wonderful Uncle who never really grew old, his smile was made of sunshine and his heart was solid gold. He will always be a part of me forever. His niece Pauline Mauricio was a dear friend and brother to me. I will always remember his favorite saying "You Konw" even though he would never say what you should know. I will always love my friend Mauricio. Until we meet again.

Rosa Ayala lit a candle in honor of Mauricio.

God needed another angel. Mauricio always had a smile but he knew what he stood for. His natural wit was extraordinary. He leaves behind many good memories.

Mauricio and I would partner up sometimes on the breakfast tacos for our Men's Saturday prayer breakfast....me and him...in his kitchen at 5a.m.....frying sausage and scrambling eggs...warming tortillos....sharing stories and coffee....he was such a pleasure to be around and he found the joy in every little thing.... he called me his brother and I truly felt that we were brothers...I never heard him speak an unkind word....he loved Jesus and was never too busy to share his faith with anyone....he was a truckdriver....Mauricio....I love you Brother and look forward to the day we meet again in Heaven....save me a spot close to you 'cause I know you are close to God.

I do remember the time that him and I bought the same 10 dollar tennis shoes from Walmart, and Everytime we see each other at church we would look down at one another's feet and giving each other eye gestures and laughed all the time.

As Maurice would always tell me "I'm an OK guy" everytime I said how much I love him and how great he was. Comedian, handyman, PawPaw, FIL, Brother, Husband and Dad were just a few of his amazing accomplishments while here on earth. There will never be another like him and until I see you again "I love you and yeah you're ok" 😊
