Bradley Neal Moore

OCT 13, 1983 - AUG 13, 2020

Bradley Moore was born on October 13, 1983, in Evansville, Indiana to Ronnie Lee Moore and Brenda Gail Lawrence. He was the youngest of two children who grew up in the Detroit, Michigan area. Brad was blessed to spend a decade with his wife and the love of his life, Christal Renee. He committed to serve his family and country with honor and integrity. When the Lord called him home August 13, 2020, during a military training exercise at Ft. Hood, he was living out his passion doing what he loved. He was reunited with his daughter, Ramsey Renee Moore, his parents, Ronnie Moore and Brenda Lawrence and grandparents.

His devotion to his country and his family was evident in his choice to serve and protect through his service in the United States Armed Forces. His service is recognized by a grateful country with the following awards: Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal (2), Army Good Conduct Medal, Iraqi Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Medal, Arkansas Emergency Service Ribbon, Texas Medal of Merit, Texas Humanitarian Service Ribbon.

His life and legacy will continue to be remembered and celebrated by his family: wife, Christal Moore; Children, Cole Andrew and Erica Nicole; sister: Michelle Moore Tice (Tedd) of Troy, Michigan; Uncle, Eugene Lawrence (Susie) of Union Grove, Alabama; Uncle, David (Alan) Lawrence of Yarmouth Port, MA; and Aunt, Kelly Douglas of Rapid City, South Dakota, and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

The family would like to extend special thanks to Casualty Assistance Officer, SFC Jill Miller for her dedication in planning and preparation for SSG Moore's celebration of life, Our Texas Army National Guard family, The North Texas Patriot Guard Riders, and many leaders who have invested in SSG Moore's life and professional development.

I knew Brad in high school! It seems like forever ago, but his memories are still fresh in my mind. I get the privilege to serve our America's Heroes daily at a VA in Alabama. I honor him as he faithfully honored us. I pray for his friends and family as he has impacted the lives by so many. R.I.P B Moore! You will never be forgotten.

We were best friends growing up in middle school and high school. We went slightly separate ways after high school but we both joined the service. In 2005-2006 we got the opportunity to meet up in of all places Iraq. I cannot obtain that picture right now as I it is in storage about 6900 miles from me right now. He has been a brother to me for 24 years. Rest in piece brother protect us from above. Joshua Andersen

My sincerest condolences to your family. My son is currently at basic training because of Sgt. Moore. I appreciate the time he gave to my son and to me and my husband answering questions before my son joined. He's made a difference in my son's life and I'm sure many others. Thank you all for your sacrifice.
